On May 14, 2015, the defendant appeared before Your Honor and was detained pending his detention hearing. On June 4, 2015, pretrial recommended the defendant's release with conditions to include electronic monitoring based on the nature of offense charged. The defendant was released to pretrial supervision on conditions to include Home Detention, to be monitored via electronic monitoring.

On December 1, 2015, the defendant appeared before Your Honor for a Status Hearing. The defendant made an application to the court requesting the removal of electronic monitoring.

Based on the initial recommendation of pretrial, we oppose the defendant's removal of electronic monitoring. However, based on the defendant's compliance, we recommend that defendant's conditions be modified from home detention to a curfew of 9pm to 7am Monday through Friday.
